

CHUMS Duty line

To offer support and guidance to CYP, Parents and professionals during this trying time. The drop-in service being offered is a virtual drop-in where contact is offered via telephone.

The clinicians who usually facilitate our drop-ins have been placed on the Duty Line Rota.

These members of staff have experience in working with and supporting Parents / CYP / Families with their concerns.

Domestic Violence / Abuse / Neglect

With the potential risk of an increase in Domestic Violence and abuse being anticipated it would be helpful for CYP / Parents to be able to reach out for further support.

By using a dedicated phrase when calling the duty line;

"we've ran out of toilet paper".

The clinician will immediately know what information to gather, inform the client what action will be taken and take the appropriate action for the most relevant support for the client.

If anyone presents in this category it will be expected that they will be referred to MASH or the police in urgent cases.
