

Advanced information for Latin Eduqas GCSE

The advanced information only covers paper 2 (Literature) and paper 3 (Civilisation). There is no advanced information for paper 1 (Language)

Paper 2 - Literature
The following texts &amp; pictures will be assessed in detail, as in previous years: Pliny – An alarming dream comes true          Martial – Cures for bad dreams          Ovid – Dipsas the sorceress          Suetonius – The portents before the murder of Julius Caesar          Picture 5 – Romulus’ and Remus’ augury The following texts will not be assessed in detail, but knowledge of the English content of these texts and knowledge of the pictures should be used in the longer 16 mark essay: Horace – Omens good and bad          Virgil – Dido prepares to curse Aeneas          Petronius – A spooky story          Pictures 1-4, 6
Paper 3 - Civilisation
The following topics will have questions specific to these areas, up to 8 mark questions. Houses and flats:          Design and features of a typical house          Occupiers’ experience Daily Routine for Roman Citizens and their wives:          Work and leisure Slaves, freed slaves and patronage:          The system of patrons and clients The forum:          Typical buildings          Typical activities Shops, businesses and streets:          Types of shops and businesses          Appearance of shops, incl thermopolia	The following sub-topics will not be assessed as specific questions, but can be used in the 12 mark essay question. Daily routine for Roman Citizens and their wives:          Pattern of a typical day Slaves, freed slaves and patronage:          Typical jobs for both sexes Shops, businesses and streets:          Typical features of streets